Fantasy

I.

Castles . . .

Castles of sand I choose to build

Beside a lapping shore of green;

My back is to the wave

And the long wave of my hair

Caresses its hollows and ventures into seaweed

By the shore.

The browns of my body

Blend with the delicate sea and sand,

The blues of my shadows and the greens of my eyes,

And no one watches, save the world.

II.

The sun stills to shades of brown

And burns my body to gold and falls

To the blue-glow of summer night.

The browns of my body,

The blues and greens,

Are shimmering silver and shadow;

My hair floats over the great-black waters;

It is a shadow to the sand—

So I shall sleep. The winds clothe me tonight.

rebelliously,
Two thousand tear sizzling down puffed

Three thousand angry voices raised in

NEW AUDITORIUM DRAMATIZES ABILITY

"Connecticut Yankee"
"Long Christmas Dinner"

"A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" was the first play to be performed in the new Mall auditorium. The success of the play was made possible by the new lighting equipment and size of the new stage. Miss Peggy Powers directed the 3 act play. Novice one acts included "Balcony Scene", "A Monkey's Paw" and a play from the theatre of the absurd.

"Monkey's Paw"

Training and grooming of horses were among the projects of the Riding Club.

RIDING CLUB

The Voice of the Vikings broadcasted a varying program of news, music, and sports.

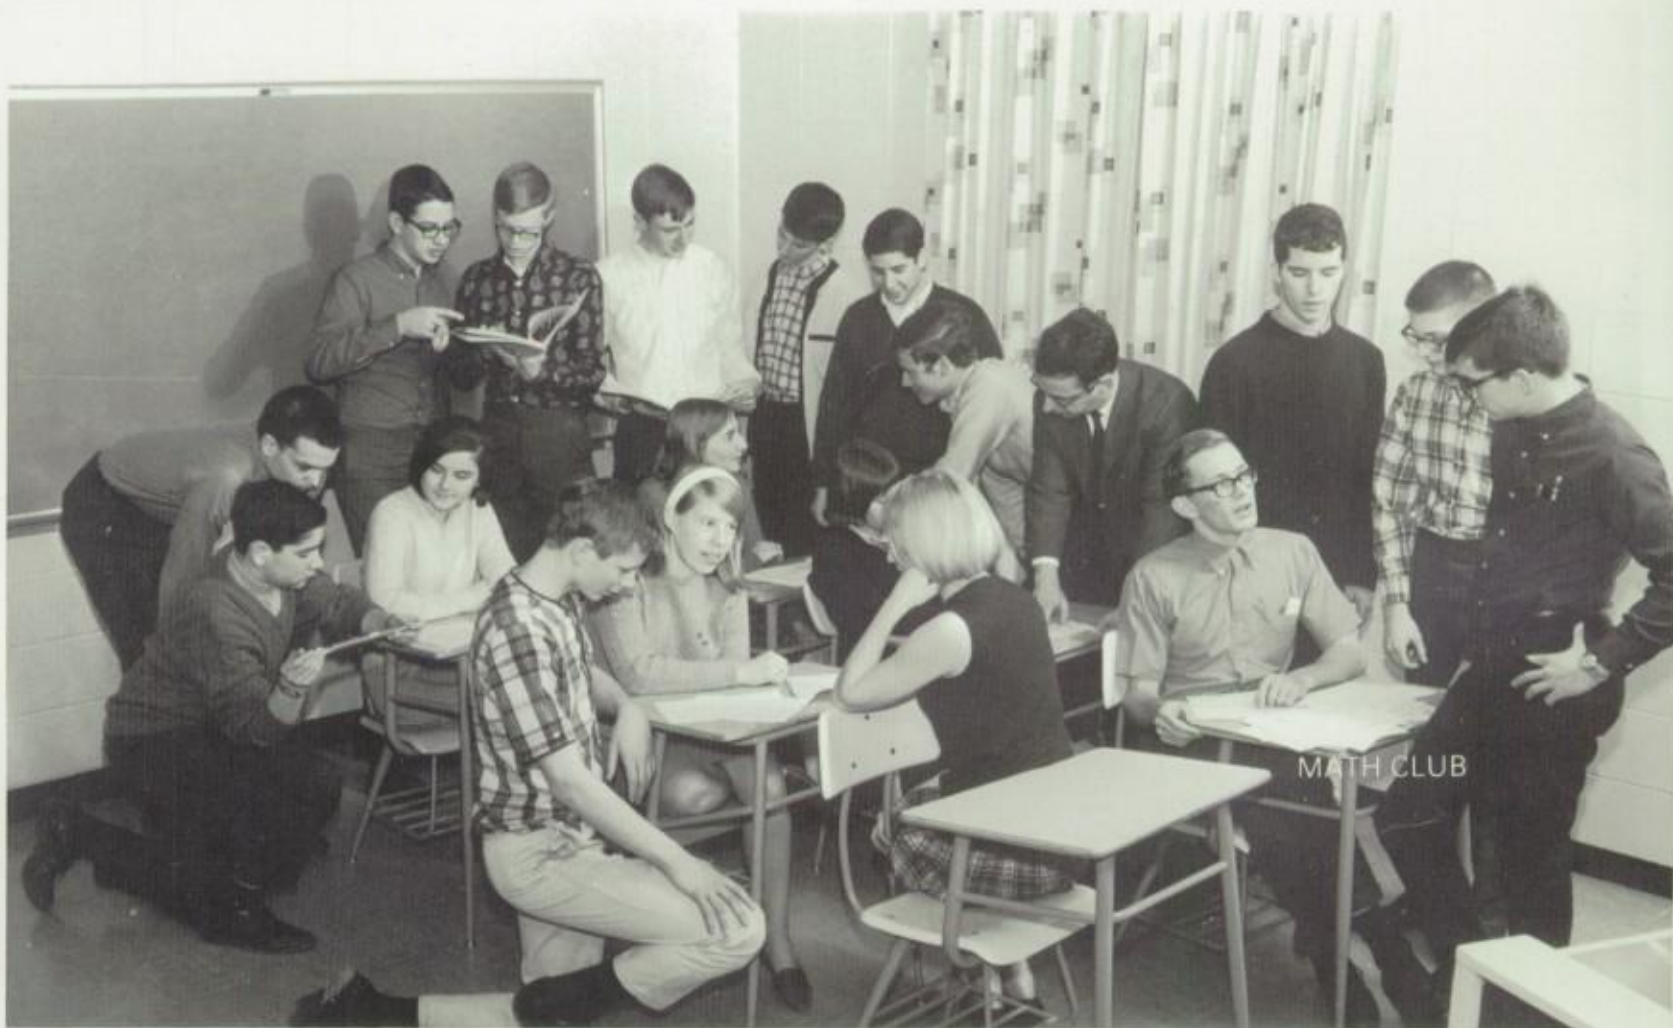

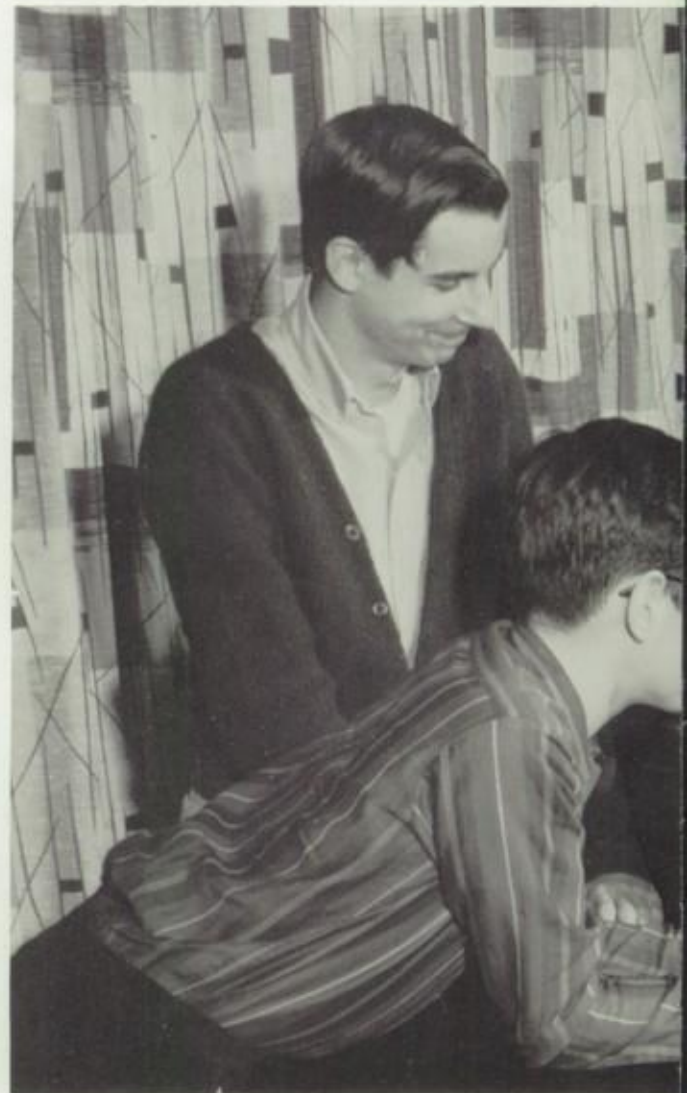

V.B.C.

Members of Edda were chosen by their English teachers to analyze material for the school's literary magazine.

The Yearbook Club assisted the staff in putting together the H-F Annual. The club prepared students for positions on the Yearbook Staff.

Math Club helped to develop students' skill and interest in modern math. It also prepared students for membership in Mathletes, our school's math team.

The Chess Club provided an opportunity for a stimulating challenge. Members sponsored an all-school tournament to gain the interest of other students in the game of chess.

Members of the Debate Squad spent hours in preparing for tournament competition. This years squad had a highly successful season and was one of H-F's finest debate teams ever.

VIKINGS GREAT . . .

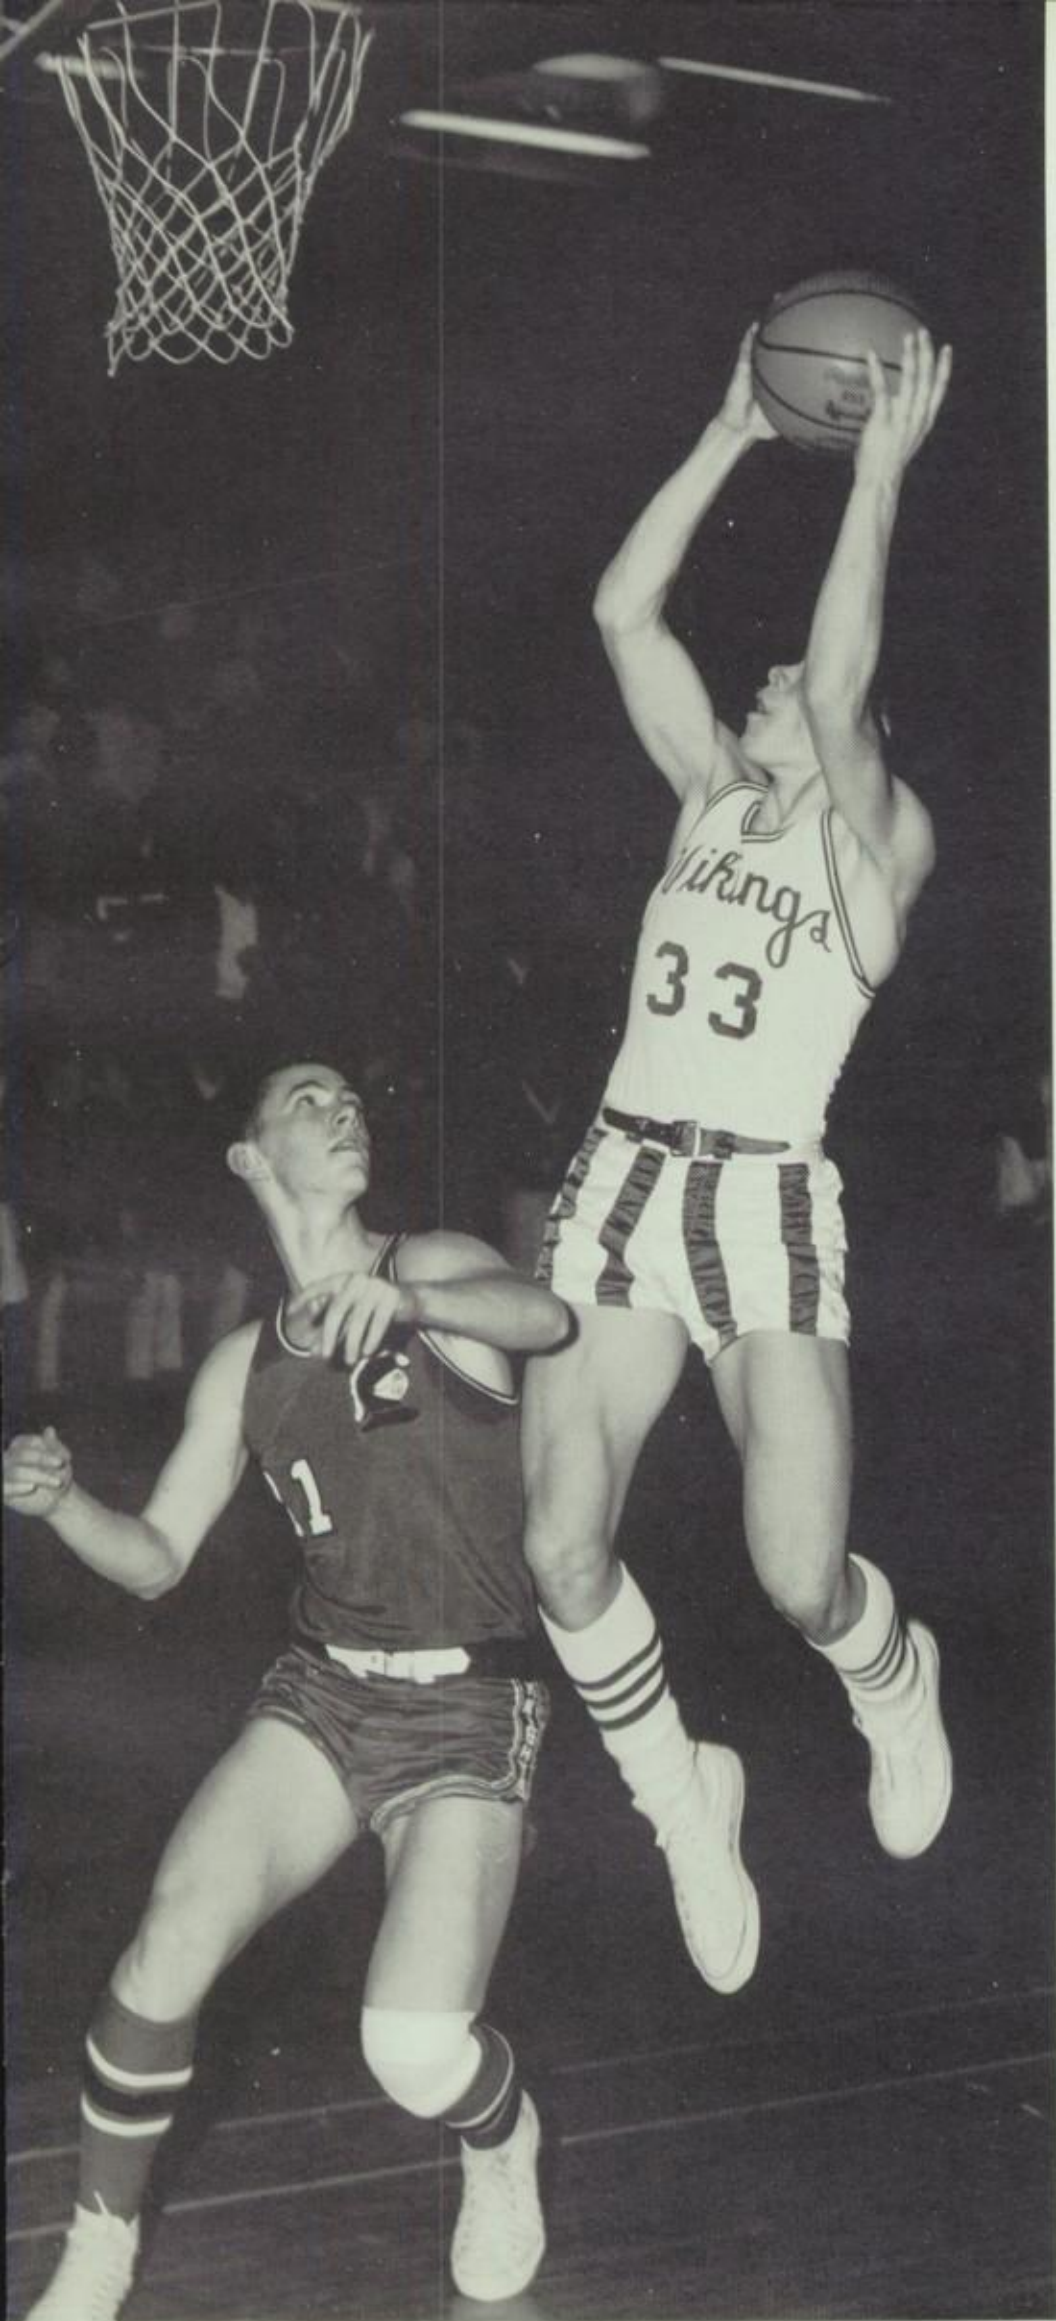

A fabulous 26-4 record was the result of the hard work put in by the Vikings, highlighted by runaway revenge victories against Lincoln-Way and Oak Lawn. Coach Dick Schmidt, enjoying his first year at the Vike's controls, called it a "highly successful season."

Coaches Reutter, Schmidt, and Laketa watched with anticipation.

Viking Rich Cornell dribbled past all aggressors.

Junior Bill Kroc scored two against Lincoln-Way.

COACH SCHMIDT

When Mr. Schmidt became varsity coach this year, he was faced with the task of molding the Vikings into a top-ranked basketball team. His confidence and encouragement shaped the team into being the first in H-F's history privileged to go down state. With calm firmness he led the players through tight situations on to many memorable victories.

Weightlifting provided boys with a chance to enhance their physiques.

Gymnastics Club combined a program of fun and physical fitness.

WEIGHTLIFTING CLUB

GYMNASTICS CLUB

Boys enjoyed outdoor exercise in the Hockey Club during the winter.

Trips to Boyne, Powderhorn, and Indianhead made the snowy winter a success for the Ski Club. The Ski Club is one of the largest clubs at H-F.

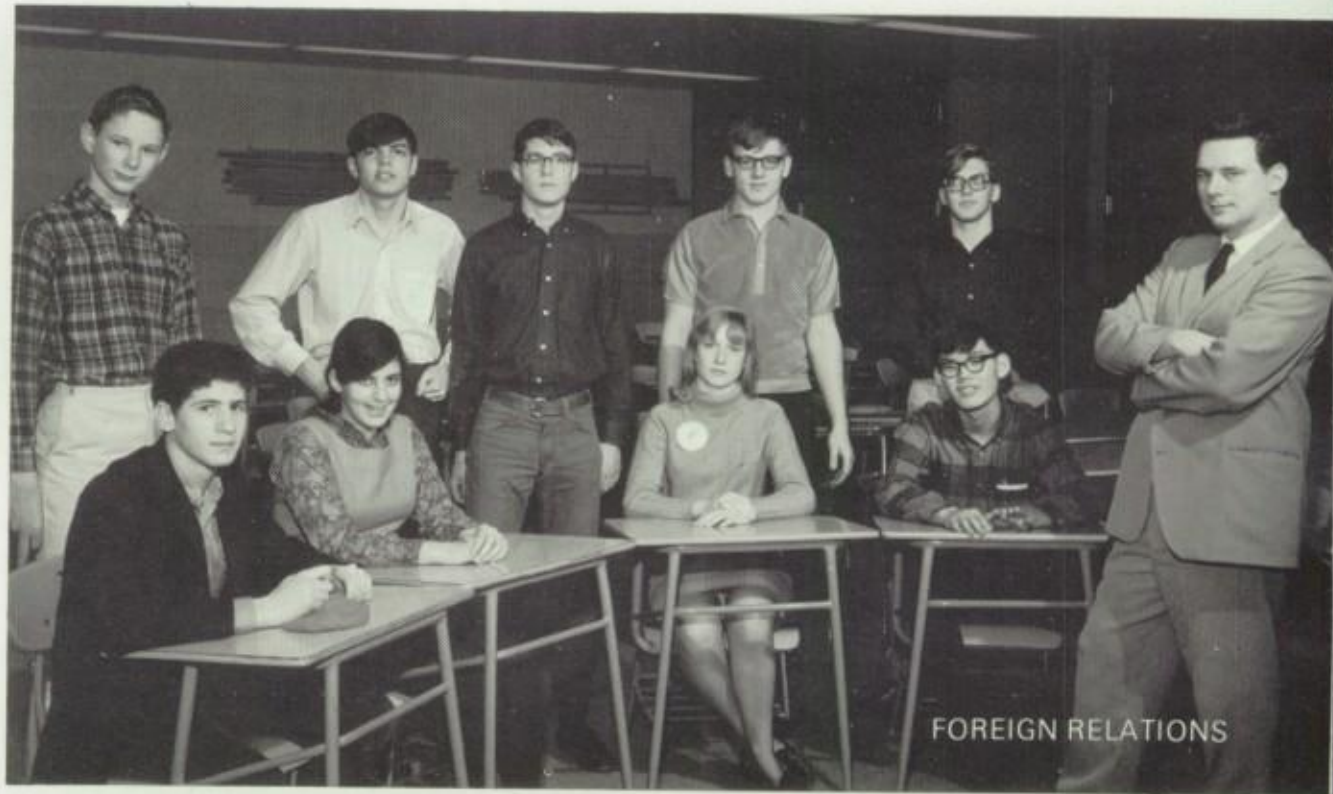

Girls interested in nursing learned more about new career openings in the field in Future Nurses Club.

The Red Cross Club was formed this year. Members sponsored drives to collect Christmas gifts for soldiers in Viet Nam.

Science students put their knowledge to use after school at Science Club meetings. The club held field trips and carried on experiments.

Concerned with improving ties between countries, Foreign Relations Club discussed matters of world interest.

Historical data and events of famous people of the past were main topics of discussion in the History Club.

VARSITY CLUB

The Varsity Club is one that contained the best athletes at H-F from a great variety of sports.

Since today's teens are troubled by the discord between races and religions, the Human Relations Club tried to learn more about the problems through discussions.

HUMAN RELATIONS

FUTURE TEACHERS

Future Teachers worked towards their goals by participating in the Teacher's Aid program and State convention.

Future Homemakers planned for tomorrow by learning to cook and sew. They acquired skills that will aid them as housewives.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

Girls in Y-Teens donated time generously to help worthwhile causes. This service organization sponsored fashion shows and teas as part of their fund-raising program.

The GAA gives girls the chance to release extra energy.

This year French Club was concerned with France as a modern nation.

A typical addition to German Club meetings was the singing of Bavarian songs along with meals at a German restaurant.

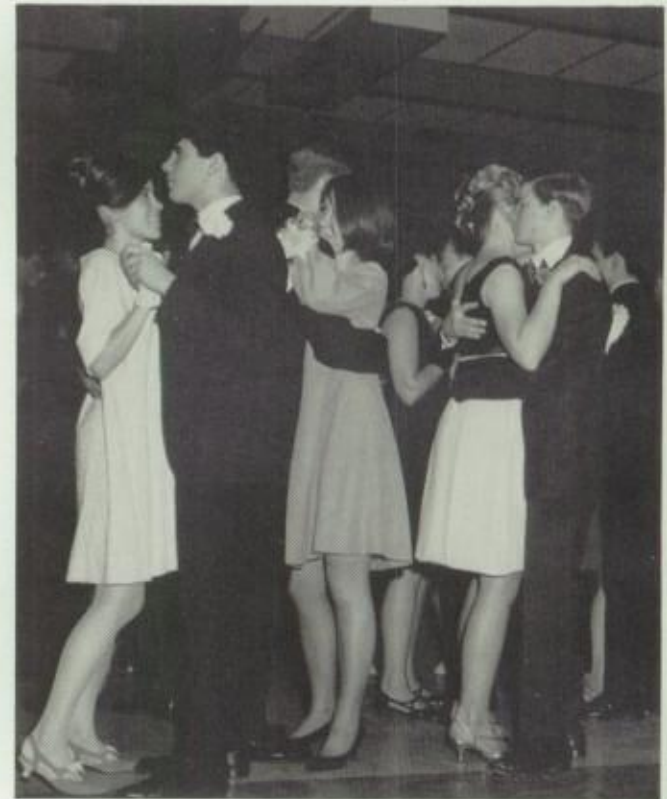

Monthly trips to places of cultural interest including the Cafe Azteca and Ballet Folklorico added a new flavor to the Spanish Club.

Soviet films and an authentic Russian dinner highlighted the Russian Club's activities.

It all started with . . .

A dinosaur welcomed primitive couples to the Eighth Annual Turnabout Dance. Refreshments were served by leopardskin clad cave girls and authentic animal sounds emitted from wild creatures throughout the motif. Tree stumps near an erupting volcano, served as throws for the crowned King and court in their prehistoric surroundings.

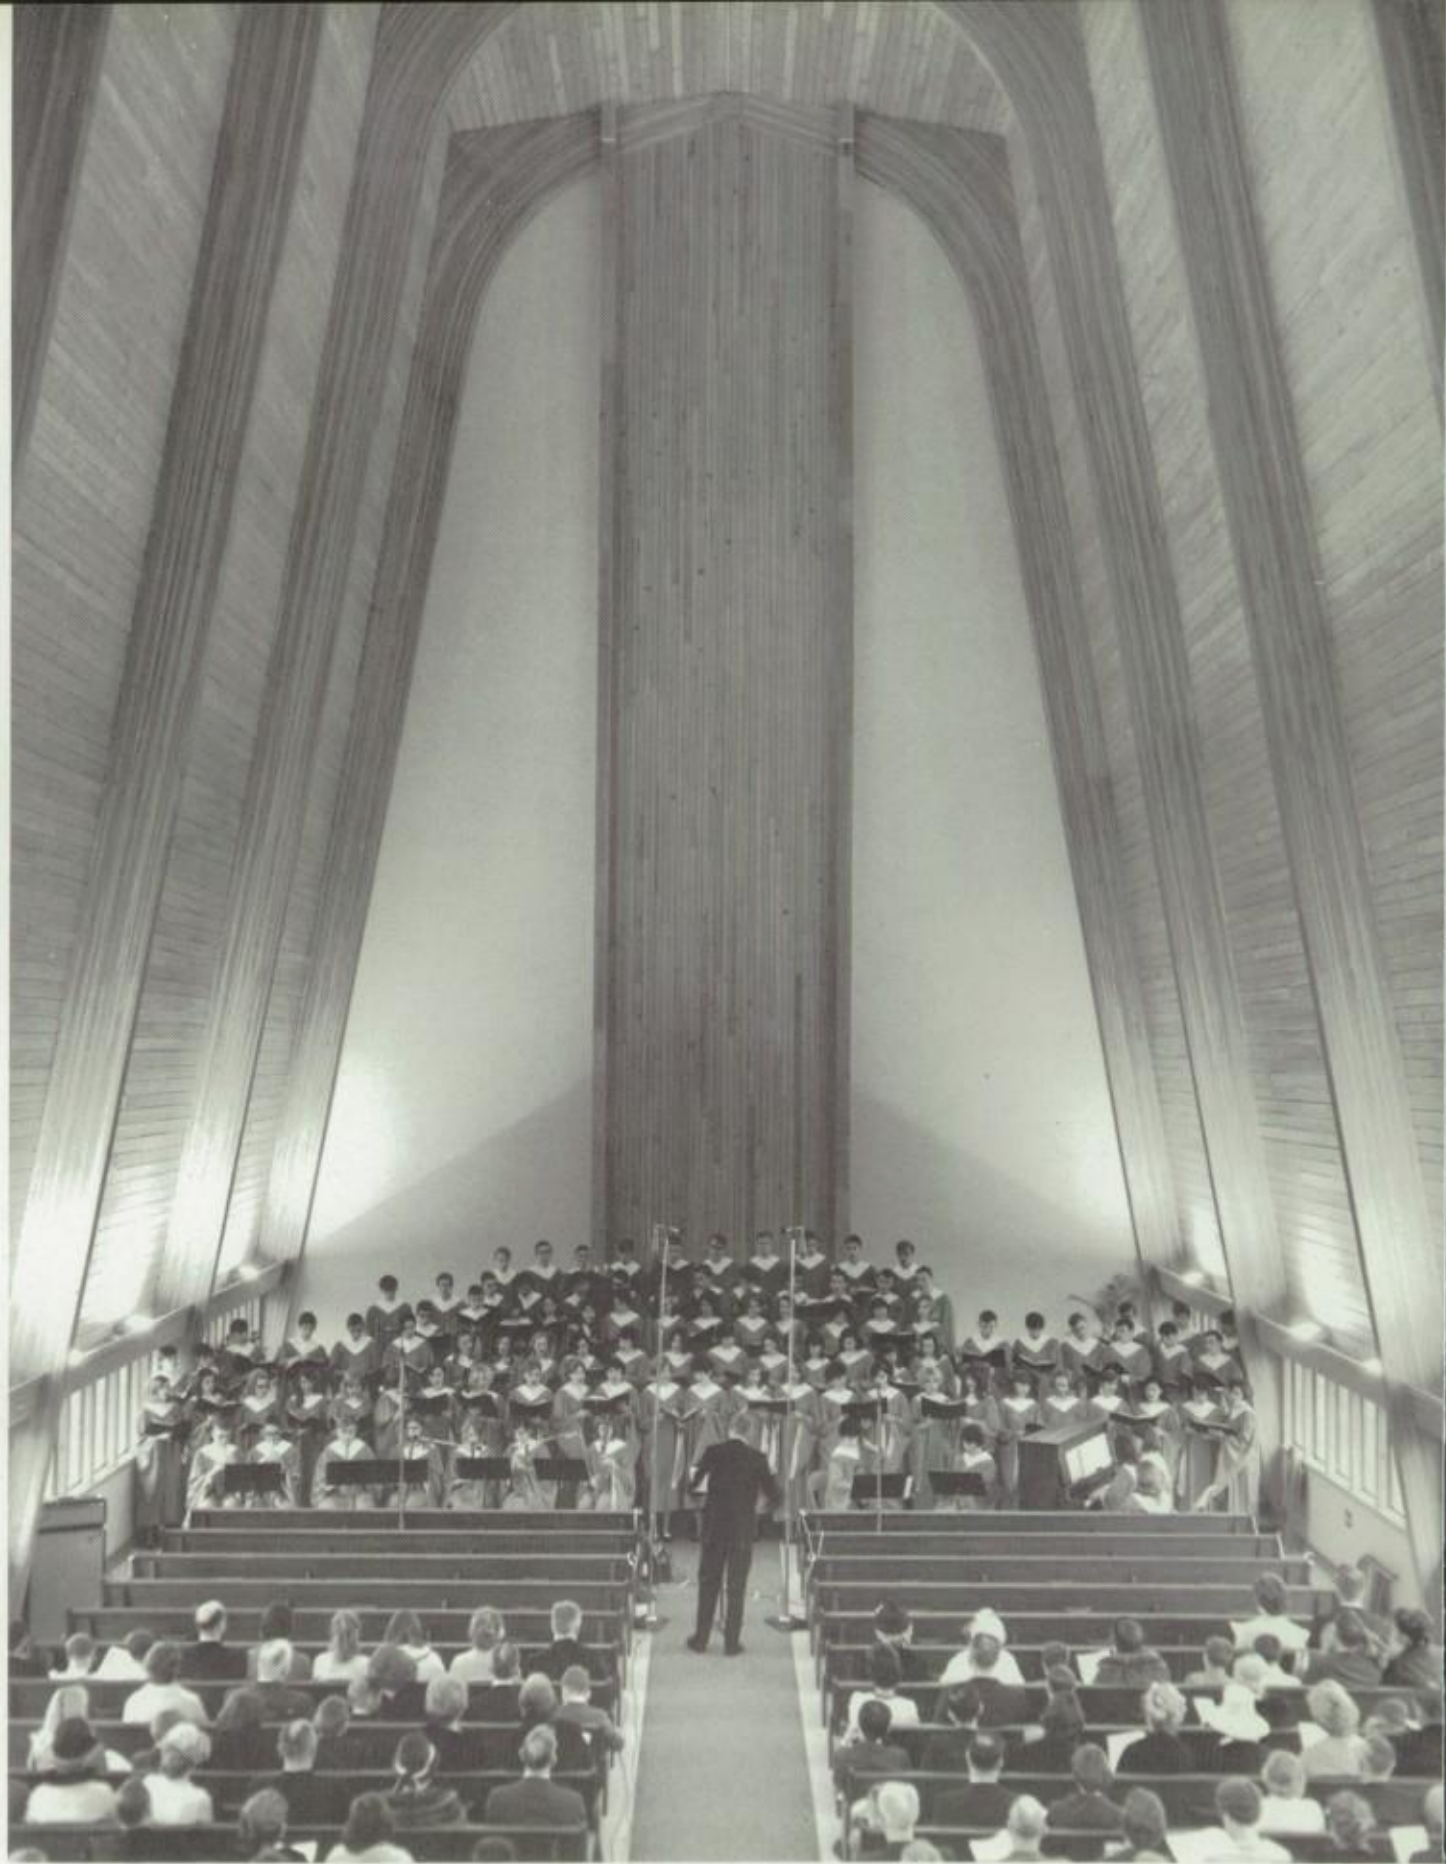

SPRING

Spring

arrived with its many moods of . . .

tranquility . . .

to reawake

our spirits.

Washington Trip

The fun all started with a fabulous jet ride to the Eastern U.S. Jamestown and Williamsburg were two of the colonial sights enjoyed by the happily fatigued sightseers. Cameras clicked at memorials and monuments of famous patriots of the past while Kennedy's solemn grave brought a quiet feeling of pride and sorrow. A teen-age night club added the finishing touch to the eventful weekend that these juniors would never forget.

"The World We Live In"

The contest play "The World We Live In" took first place in the state finals. The fact that our students performed so well as a group and spent hours working towards perfection was responsible for this.

This year's Spring play was "The Madwoman of Chaillot." The stage crews worked with many new ideas for the set including a French sidewalk cafe scene and a set on the stage apron. A Parisian can-can number highlighted the play.

"The Madwoman of Chaillot"

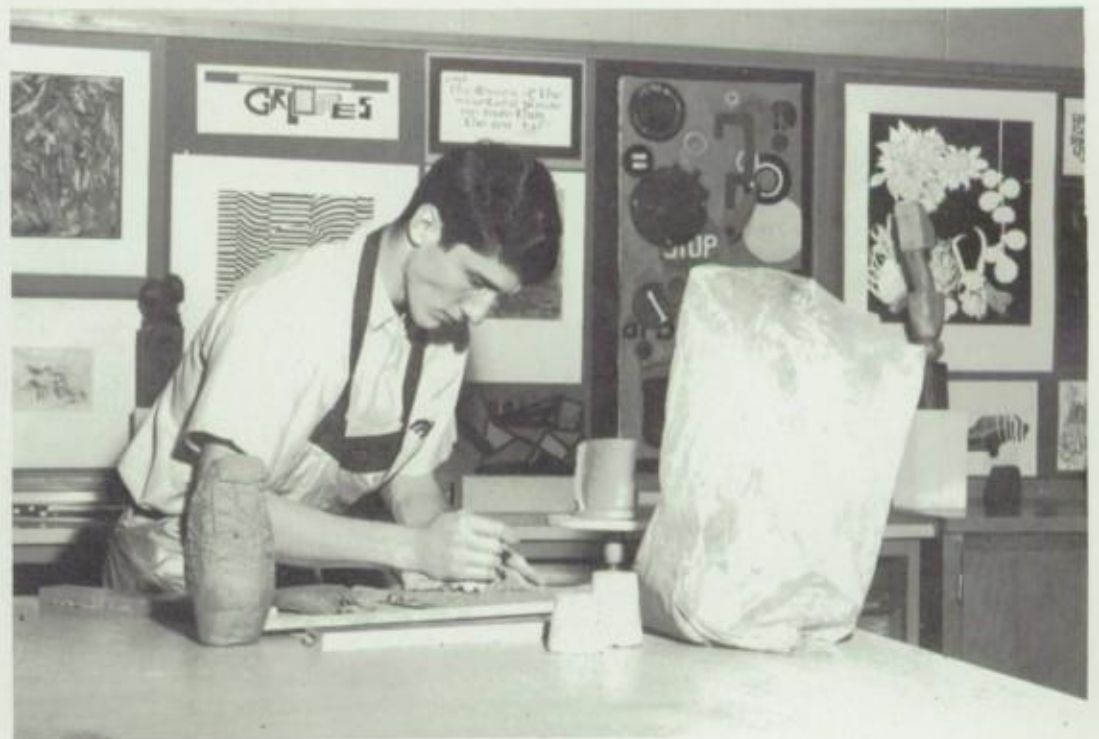

Girls experimented in expressing their feelings through dance in the Modern Dance Club. The Modern Dance Show displayed the year's work on original dance skits and impressionistic expression.

Artistic students at H-F expressed themselves through extra-curricular projects. They received recognition at the Fine Arts Festival by displaying and demonstrating their work.

Girls highly skilled in sychronized swimming tried out for Aquettes at the beginning of the year. In the spring, after a year of practice and preparation, they performed, "On With The Show."

The Swing Show was the final combined performances of the Viking choir and concert band. Its success can be partially accredited to the popular music used in its program.

AQUETTES

Timers prove themselves indispensable at H-F swim meets by timing races and recording results.

The H-F Guard helped to watch swimmers while the pool was open to the public.

The girls in P.O.W.'s helped generate school spirit by putting up posters and signs on wrestling team lockers.

Whirling in a round of excitement

An 1890 fairground served as the scene of "Carousel" this year's Prom. Tickets were taken at a striped admissions booth before couples entered the Tunnel of Love and were surrounded by an old fashioned carnival. Music from a bandshell accompanied dancers and those who promenaded over the bridge to the candy-striped ice cream parlor were served cold ices. The queen and her court were crowned on a ferris wheel near a bright garden of rose trees and tulips where onlookers sat and talked.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Members of the National Honor Society (pictured above) were chosen because of outstanding records in academics and school activities. Teachers rated exceptional students and decisions were based on past contacts in class and in clubs. This high honor was bestowed upon 86 new members at the traditional tapping ceremony.

AFS (at left) welcomed this year's exchange students, Asha Pradhan, from India, Tommy Sandberg, from Sweden, and welcomed back Mary Washburn who spent last year in Brazil. The club sponsored travelogues to earn money to make this program possible. Tag Day gave H-F students the chance to support AFS, and an opportunity to meet exchange students from neighboring schools.

JUNIORS

Juniors-yesterday's followers- looked ahead as they prepared to become tomorrow's leaders. Under the guidance of President Chris Burda, this energetic group worked throughout the year in an effort to prepare for future leadership. The creativity possessed by the members of the class of 1968 was seen many times in their junior year. During Homecoming they had their first opportunity to prove these talents. Later they worked with the seniors in sponsoring a successful Christmas Dance. Their final test was the prom. Long, tedious hours of planning resulted in an evening of romance and enchantment. Through these activities the juniors were better prepared to face the challenge of their senior year.

Officers: l. to r. Herb Radford, Treas.; Leo Strauss, V. Pres.; Chris Burda, Pres.; Sally Schneider, Secy.

SOPHOMORES, no longer those gawky, wide-eyed, Freshmen, developed during the year of 1966-67 into the leaders of spirit. Not only in such sports as gymnastics, basketball, and football, but they also had a first place Homecoming Float and a first place Christmas Hall. Having a car wash during Prom weekend, sponsoring Gym-Jams, and Varsity Inns, as well as participating in extracurricular activities, were just a part of the contributions they made. This "mello" crowd will show a bright future as upperclassmen.

FRESHMEN . . .

This year's Freshmen entered as the largest class in the history of H-F. Although their ways were as yet unsophisticated, they had an alertness about them that helped the class of '70 to achieve its goals. Showing an eagerness in Christmas hall decorations, Pep Week competition, and contributions in Student Government, the class of '70 proved itself responsible. Their resourcefulness and drive gained them a reputation as the class that's always active and ready to tackle any obstacle.

The staff of "H-F 67" would like to extend its appreciation to the many businesses that have made contributions to the yearbook. Without the support of our patrons, this type of book would not have been possible.

Now that we have walked out through these doors that we first entered as freshmen four years ago, we face an unpredictable world and future. Whether we will encounter prosperity, poverty, peace, or war is yet a mystery. But we're through these doors and on our own to face our own problems. Each of us must search for our own place, our own goal, and fulfill our own role as adults.

But the spirit, the hope, and the determination that kept us together and pulled us through the rough moments during school will stick with each of us to pull us through whatever we will encounter in the future.

Jeanne Meyers,
Editor-in-Chief
